Join us on Saturday, May 2 for adventure, learning and fun in the home of Punxsutawney Phil, the Weather Capital of the World - Punxsutawney!

Punxsutawney Phil's Weather Extravaganza begins at 10 a.m. and ends at 2 p.m. Scouts & adults will start the day at the Weather Discovery Center then head to Gobblers Knob for lunch and more fun! Here's what you'll do:

- * Start at the Weather Discovery Center at 10 a.m. then head up to Gobblers Knob at noon for lunch and the rest of your day. (Lunch includes pizza, vegetable sticks, and fruit.)
- * Explore and interact with the weather science and weather folklore exhibits at the Punxsutawney Weather Discovery Center. Plus you'll make a SWAPS to take home!
- * Take a walking tour of some of the Phantastic Phils! Public Art sculptures, take pictures with the 6-foot-tall creatively-designed Phils and get insider information about them.
- * Granola bars provided as a mid-morning snack.
- * Take a stroll along the Gobblers Knob walking trail and learn about the tradition of Groundhog Day.
- * Meet Punxsutawney Phil and learn about groundhogs.
- * All Girl Scout registrants get a Extravaganza fun patch and a groundhog souvenir!
- * Adults & siblings cost is $16 and does not include the patch and the souvenir.

Important Things to Know:

- * Dress for the weather! In spring it might be chilly and rainy, or it could be warm and sunny.
- * Wear good walking shoes. During the tour of the Phantastic Phils, you'll walk about three city blocks. On the Gobblers Knob walking trail, you'll walk about 1/2-mile on a woodland path.
- * The address for Gobblers Knob is 1548 Woodland Ave. Ext., Punxsutawney, PA 15767. The address for the Weather Discovery Center is 201 N. Findley St., Punxsutawney, PA 15767. Our telephone number is 814-938-1000.
- * There is plentiful free parking at Gobblers Knob. There is limited free parking in a lot on the north side of the Weather Discovery Center. There is metered street parking and a parking lot within a block of the center. The metered parking is free on Saturdays in Punxsutawney.
- * Be sure to bring your camera!
